

24-Feb-02

Marginal Tax Rate Brackets by Year, 2000 to 2010

2000 Tax Rate	New Tax Brackets Under EGTRRA by Year										Maximum 2010 Taxable Income Taxed at Rate (2000 dollars)
	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	Single	Married	HOH
15%	New 10% bracket for first $6,000 of income for single, $12,000 for married					Raise bracket thresholds to $7,000 and $14,000. Indexed after 2007					$5,679	$11,357	$8,112
15% [1]	15%										$26,250	$52,500	$35,150
28%	27%		26%				25%				$63,550	$105,950	$90,800
31%	30%		29%				28%				$132,600	$161,450	$147,050
36%	35%		34%				33%				$288,350	$288,350	$288,350
39.60%	38.60%		37.60%				35%				—	—	—

[1] While the 15 percent marginal rate does not change, the amount of income taxed at that rate does. Not only is part of the present 15 percent bracket taxed at 10% in 2001 and beyond, the size of the bracket for married filers is ultimately expanded to be twice the size of the single bracket.

Source: Committee on Ways and Means, June 6, 2001; Burman, Len et al., "How the 2001 Tax Cut Will Affect Families and Children," 2002.